CODY ROAD

whiskeys

Subtle, Sophisticated, Smooth

Welcome to whiskey like our forefathers made it. We start with the finest grain in the world from right here in the Heartland. We buy our grain directly from the farmers who grow it, all within 25 miles of our distillery. We can show you where every kernel comes from.

THE APPROACH

Our whiskeys are made one barrel at a time. We use smaller barrels that can be moved by hand. We age at remarkably low proof. This intentionally inefficient process brings out more of the wonderful sugars of the oak to dance with the charred vanillas and caramel notes from the flame.

THE BENEFIT

There's enough whiskey on the market that tastes exactly like all the others. It's time to step in a bold new direction crafted in a long forgotten manner. Distilled less than a mile from the birthplace of a true original: Buffalo Bill Cody. Tip your hat to his legend and stand out from the crowd to find the distinctive deliciousness that we call Cody Road.
